Name _____ Date _____

Presentation Rubric

Use this rubric to assess each group's presentation of their purchasing decision and rationale.

Criteria	Developing	Approaching	Meets
The presentation includes valid reasons for purchasing choice.	The presentation includes fewer than two valid reasons for the purchasing choice.	The presentation includes at least two valid reasons for the purchasing choice.	The presentation includes at least three valid reasons for the purchasing choice.
The presentation includes cost considerations.	The presentation does not explain how cost was considered in the decision-making process.	The presentation somewhat explains how cost was considered in the decision-making process.	The presentation clearly explains how cost was considered in the decision-making process.
The presentation includes energy efficiency considerations.	The presentation does not explain how energy efficiency was considered in the decision-making process.	The presentation somewhat explains how energy efficiency was considered in the decision-making process.	The presentation clearly explains how energy efficiency was considered in the decision-making process.
The presentation is delivered clearly.	The presentation is not delivered clearly. Clear pronunciation and appropriate eye contact and volume are rarely used throughout the presentation.	The presentation is mostly delivered clearly. Clear pronunciation and appropriate eye contact and volume are used throughout most of the presentation.	The presentation is delivered clearly, with clear pronunciation and appropriate eye contact and volume.

© 2013 National Geographic Society