Film is often seen as a passive learning medium, but it can offer much richer learning opportunities. The Experiencing Film lessons developed at IslandWood take film to a new level with dynamic instructional strategies. Each of these vignettes highlights a lesson from the Experiencing Film curriculum guide.

Take a journey with these teachers and discover just how engaging and authentic film can be in the classroom:

- Film Freeze Frame: Observations
- Film Freeze Frame: Predictions
- Auditory Perceptions: Sketches
- Auditory Perceptions: Community Web
- I Am From: Poem
- I Am From: I Appreciate My Neighbors Who...
