How to Plan an Event for Geography Awareness Week

For the complete special collections with media resources, visit: http://www.nationalgeographic.org/media/how-plan-event-geography-awareness-week/

This Geography Awareness Week, gather your friends, family, coworkers, and everyone in between to help you celebrate! In the documents above, you’ll find a comprehensive Event Planning How-to, with instructions from gathering your planning team to sending thank-you cards, and lots of event ideas big and small.

There are also more specific guides for fund-raising, hosting webinars, and planning a trip to visit local elected officials who should be supporting better geography education. We also have a guide for planning a quiz night—complete with 100 prepared quiz questions!

Finally, find support materials and more in our other Geography Awareness Week collections related to promotion and graphic resources.
