

Name _____ Date _____

Spotlight On Innovations

As you read the passage about each innovation, answer the questions below. After the reading, discuss your answers with your teammates and change them as needed.

Wright and Curtiss

1. What innovation is described in this reading? Who are the innovators? _____

2. Compare and contrast the innovators' different approaches to creating this innovation. How successful would you say each was? _____

3. Innovations can affect the world in many different ways. Describe the two areas of society that you think are most impacted by this particular innovation. For example, does it affect the economy, how we communicate, our travel, work, or daily life? _____

Spotlight On Innovations, continued

As you read the passage about each innovation, answer the questions below. After the reading, discuss your answers with your teammates and change them as needed.

Edison and Tesla

1. What innovation is described in this reading? Who are the innovators? _____

2. Compare and contrast the innovators' different approaches to creating this innovation. How successful would you say each was? _____

3. Innovations can affect the world in many different ways. Describe the two areas of society that you think are most impacted by this particular innovation. For example, does it affect the economy, how we communicate, travel, work, or daily life? _____

Spotlight On Innovations, continued

As you read the passage about each innovation, answer the questions below. After the reading, discuss your answers with your teammates and change them as needed.

Jobs and Gates

1. What innovation is described in this reading? Who are the innovators? _____

2. Compare and contrast the innovators' different approaches to creating this innovation. How successful would you say each was? _____

3. Innovations can affect the world in many different ways. Describe the two areas of society that you think are most impacted by this particular innovation. For example, does it affect the economy, how we communicate, our travel, work, or daily life? _____

