

Name _____ Date _____

Model of the Human Eye

Label this model of the human eye to represent what you learned in your experiment. Draw the image of the ice cream cone as it would appear to the eye in the box.

Explain the relationship between light and how humans are able to see. Use what you learned from your experiment to guide your answer.

© 2013 National Geographic Society