

Action Plan Scoring Rubric

Group Members _____

Date _____

Criteria	1	2	3	4	Comments
Disease Profile	Less than half of the information on this page is accurate.	There is an attempt at describing the symptoms, transmission type, treatment, and important information, but there are several clear misconceptions about at least one of these categories.	The symptoms, transmission type, treatment, and important information are described. There are slight inaccuracies or misconceptions.	The symptoms, transmission type treatment, and important information about your group's selected disease are clearly and accurately described.
Action Plan Flow Chart	There is no evidence of coordination among teams. Essential teams are missing. Relationships are unclear or missing.	The chart includes activation and deactivation of the plan. Some essential teams are missing. Some relationships are unclear.	The chart includes activation and deactivation of the plan and relevant teams of people. Some relationships are unclear.	The chart includes activation and deactivation of the plan, relevant teams of people, and what each team will do. Relationships are clearly marked.
Operations: Activation and Deactivation	Activation and deactivation are mentioned, but not described. It is unclear who is responsible and what they do.	Activation and deactivation are described. People are included, but their roles are unclear.	Activation and deactivation are described, including relevant people involved. How information is communicated is unclear.	Activation and deactivation are clearly described including people and organization involved and flow of communication.
Operations: Reactive Measures	Reactive measures are mentioned, but not described. Relevant people may be mentioned, but their roles are not described. There are several significant inaccuracies.	Activation and deactivation are described. People are included, but their roles are unclear.	Activation and deactivation are described, including relevant people involved. How information is communicated is unclear.	Activation and deactivation are clearly described including people and organization involved and flow of communication.

Action Plan Scoring Rubric, continued

Criteria	1	2	3	4	Comments
Operations: Proactive Measures	Proactive measures are mentioned, but not described. Relevant people may be mentioned, but their roles are not described. There are several significant inaccuracies.	Proactive measures are described, along with the roles of relevant community members. The measures may not be appropriate for responding to this disease and/or there are some misconceptions about the measures.	Proactive measures are clearly and accurately described. The plan accounts for roles of relevant community members and government. The measures are mostly appropriate for responding to an outbreak of this disease.	Proactive measures are clearly and accurately described. The plan accounts for the roles of relevant community members and government. The measures are appropriate for responding to the disease outbreak.
Operations: Additional Factors	Additional possible factors are listed, but no connections are made to this outbreak response.	Additional factors are described, but there are few connections to the measures included in this outbreak response.	The plan acknowledges the possibility of additional factors specific to an outbreak of the focal disease, such as waste management, cultural perspectives, and geography, and makes some connections to the measures included in this outbreak response.	The plan describes and accounts for factors specific to an outbreak of the focal disease, such as waste management, cultural perspectives, and geography, and they are clearly connected to the measures in this outbreak response.
Organization and Clarity	Writing organization is confusing. Many errors in punctuation and grammar that interfere with readability. Key vocabulary is regularly misused.	Writing is mostly organized. Some punctuation or grammatical errors. Occasional misuse of key vocabulary terms.	The plan acknowledges the possibility of additional factors specific to an outbreak of the focal disease, such as waste management, cultural perspectives, and geography, and makes some connections to the measures included in this outbreak response.	The plan describes and accounts for factors specific to an outbreak of the focal disease, such as waste management, cultural perspectives, and geography, and they are clearly connected to the measures in this outbreak response.

Total: