

Letter from the Editors

The plastics problem explained: Help your readers understand the issue by explaining: What are plastics, where do they come from, how are they used, and what properties make them unique?

How are plastics affecting the ocean? Explain to your readers how our production, usage, and disposal of plastics affect the marine environment, for better or for worse. Provide evidence of those impacts.

How can ordinary people like you and I help to solve this crisis?
