PROJECT DETAILS

Project Summary and Background*

In no more than a few paragraphs, introduce your project and the story you want to tell. Why is the issue important and to whom? Compare your project with the existing work of other storytellers and scientists who have covered or published similar ideas. How will your project add to our understanding of the subject matter? Explain the cultural or social relevance and context for the story, and why this project is timely or urgent. Detail the topics, issues, themes, challenges, stakes, or questions that your project will cover. (Up to 4000 characters or 500 words)

Artistic Approach*

In one to two paragraphs describe your creative vision for the finished project. What medium will you use? Please note, your output can include multiple formats, but we find most successful projects choose one or two and do them well. If applicable, mention any creative elements and assets, interactive elements, new technologies or non-traditional media you intend to use. Explain how these elements will enhance the experience and interaction between viewers and the world of the story. Outputs can be created in local languages. (Up to 4000 characters or 500 words)

Coverage Plan*

In a few paragraphs (or an outline list), what is your timeline and strategy for producing your story? Indicate which communities or locations you will visit and why. Include any assumptions necessary for this project to succeed (e.g., critical relationships or external factors outside of your control, such as political instability or visa issues). If you will interview or document human subjects as a primary component of your project, how will you gain access to these communities, build their trust, and respect their wishes in your final products? (Up to 4000 characters or 500 words)

External Capacity Development*

In one or two paragraphs, please describe how your project contributes to the socioeconomic or professional development of local students, community members, collaborators, or other individuals through education, training, mentoring, or other methods. If not applicable, write Not Applicable (N/A). (Up to 4000 characters or 500 words)

Impact*

Describe in no more than one paragraph what impact you are trying to have on the planet and with your specified audience as a National Geographic Society grantee. Then, tell us how you will measure that success. Please be as specific as possible. In what ways, if any, are your project's goals aligned with the mission of the National Geographic Society? (Up to 4000 characters or 500 words)

Intended Audience, Distribution, and Outreach Strategy*

In a few paragraphs, describe the anticipated audience for your project, including any underserved audiences. How do you plan to reach your target audience? Distribution note: approval of a storytelling grant does not guarantee publication by any National Geographic media platform. (Up to 4000 characters or 500 words)

Portfolio*

Please provide a link to a portfolio or published work that demonstrates your ability to execute the current proposal. If this is not available, you may upload work samples as files. Also include portfolio links for any project team members who will add relevant expertise. (Up to 4000 characters or 500 words)

PROJECT MEMBERS

Provide information for other individuals whose roles are critical to the proposed project, including local collaborator(s) if you are working in a country other than your own. You can include up to five people.

Note: Please DO NOT list yourself as a team member.

First Name*

Middle Name

FOR PREPARATION ONLY

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

To assist National Geographic in better understanding the goals of your project, you will be asked to individually name and categorize the results and outputs your project is setting out to achieve. You will be expected to report back on these results at the time of your final report, if you receive funding.

Output / Result Category*

(e.g. None, Documentation, Products, or Publications, Discoveries or Innovations, Area or Species, Protected, New or Improved Understanding, Individuals with New or Improved Knowledge, Other)

Output / Result*

(In the online application a list of results will change depending on your Result Category selection. If no category is appropriate, You will be asked to select other and specify. Note that you may only specify one result per entry, to enter multiple results you will be asked to create multiple entries.)

Brief Details of the Output / Result*

(Describe this result in one sentence. Longer summaries should be included prior in the application.)

Number of Output / Result*

(To the best of your abilities please indicate how many of the expected output/result your project will produce. Please note that the online application will only accept numeric entries.)

Please repeat this process for each expected result of your project.

ATTACHMENTS

You will be asked to upload attachments. NOTE: Individual file size may not exceed 1 GB.

Upload Video (Early Career Grantees ONLY)*

In a short video, tell us (1) how your project will make a difference in your field, (2) what makes your work interesting, and (3) how this project will contribute to your growth as a leader in your chosen career. The video is intended as an opportunity to propose your idea in a less formal way than a traditional written proposal, and it helps us gauge your current ability to communicate your idea.

Videos must be no longer than 2 minutes. Reviewers will not watch more than 2 minutes of video per applicant. Speak clearly and directly into the camera. Feel free to use notes, but please film in front of a plain (not distracting) background in a quiet location.

You can use your laptop or cell phone camera. Place the camera at eye level (horizontal orientation) and roughly arm's length away. Look directly into the camera (not down or up), and if you have an external microphone, please use it and place it a few inches from your mouth.

Pretend you are explaining your work to your friends and family members. However, we only want to see you on camera, so do not include footage of anyone or anything else.

Please upload a C.V. or Resume*

To upload, download the file from your device to your computer, press Choose File to select the appropriate file, and press Upload.

Image Upload (You may upload 2 additional files)

If applicable, you may upload additional images, maps or figures. If uploading a photo, include photographer credit in the space provided.

ETHICAL CERTIFICATION

National Geographic Society has zero tolerance for bribery and corruption, and complies with all applicable laws prohibiting such conduct including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the U.K. Bribery Act. Grantees may not: offer or give anything of value to a government official or any other person as an incentive to, or in exchange or as a reward for, obtaining an improper advantage for National Geographic; or give, offer, solicit or accept anything of value that is intended to induce the recipient to violate his/her duty of loyalty to his/her employer. All licenses, permits and other government permissions or approvals required to carry out a grant must be obtained through the lawful, legitimate process of the country where the grant activity occurs.

National Geographic Society complies with all embargos and sanctions established by the U.S. Department of Treasury Office of Foreign Asset Controls (OFAC). If any work under the proposed grant will be performed in countries including but not limited to Cuba, Iran, Sudan, Syria, North Korea and Crimea, you must consult your legal counsel to ensure that an appropriate general license is available, or a specific license has been obtained, allowing the grant activity to take place. Additionally, the U.S. Department of Commerce must be notified when certain items are exported (including encryption software standard on all computers). You must consult with your legal counsel and comply with all export requirements applicable to the grant work.
