

EXPLORE THROUGH READING

Books have the ability to transport readers to faraway places. As part of National Geographic's Summer Learning Series, explore a different part of the world through this curated reading list.

PICTURE BOOKS

Appropriate for elementary grades

My Culture and Me

by Gregg Dreise

Last Tree in the City

by Peter Carnavas

What's That There?

by Ros Moriarty

Uno's Garden

by Graeme Base

The Rabbits

by John Marsden and Shaun Tan

The Little Corroboree Frog

by Tracey Holton-Ramirez and Angela Ramirez

My Home Broome

by Tamzyne Richardson and Bronwyn Houston

Saved!!!

by Lydia Williams and Lucinda Gifford

Dance, Bilby, Dance

by Tricia Oktober

Taniwha

by Robyn Kahukiwa

CHAPTER BOOKS

Appropriate for middle grades

Growing Up Aboriginal in Australia

by Anita Heiss

Does My Head Look Big in This?

by Randa Abdel-Fattah

On the Jellicoe Road

by Melina Marchetta

Black Cockatoo

by Carl Merrison and Hakea Hustler

Fog a Dox

by Bruce Pascoe

Purple Threads

by Jeanine Leane

Meet Me at the Intersection

edited by Ambelin Kwaymullina and Rebecca Lim

Sister Heart

by Sally Morgan

Maybe Tomorrow

by Boori Monty Pryor and Meme McDonald

Freedom Ride

by Sue Lawson